COMPANY PROFILE

NOVOCOCONUT INC. is a manufacturing company specializing in the production and global distribution of coconut-based products. Our core product range includes, but is not limited to, coconut milk, coconut water, ready-to-eat curry soup, coconut snacks, and other allied or similar coconut-derived products.

The company was established to support the expansion of production capacity and to meet rising global demand—particularly in the U.S. and European markets—by serving as a strategic manufacturing base for high-quality coconut
